ITINERARY

Starting next to the sandy beach of Machico, the ascent goes by a path between houses, entering then in a trail that ends at Pico do Facho. During this uphill we can see a view of this town. We follow the Levada do Caniçal towards Boca do Risco, and from there we climb till Pico das Roçadas, where there is an excellent view of the north coast cliffs of Madeira island. After that, we begin the descent to the village of Caniçal where along the promenade we can breathe the sea breeze. After reaching Ribeira do Natal, the ascent goes between the slopes in the south between the Caniçal and Machico. Sometimes we can see airplanes approaching to Funchal international airport.

Coming back to Pico do Facho, we follow a technical descent that ends next to the Santa Casa da Misericórdia de Machico where we continue by the road and some steps towards the beach of Machico.
